Student support

Our Student Wellness and Accessibility office is a good resource for our students. We strive to promote an environment that is wellness-enhancing, inclusive and welcoming for all students. SWAC facilitates individual student support in addition to wellness and equity-based programming.

<https://humber.ca/student-life/swac/home>.

We have an LGBTQ+ resource centre that works with students, along with a gender & sexual diversity committee. Toronto itself comes in third in the world's most LGBT-friendly cities ranking- <https://humber.ca/lgbtq/content/we-are-proud>. BASE (Black Academic Success & Engagement) works with students for programming and diversity initiatives across both Humber campuses <https://humber.ca/thebase/>.

Toronto's motto is Diversity Our Strength, with one of the highest cities in foreign born residents. <https://torontoglobal.ca/TG-Blog/March-2019/How-multicultural-is-Toronto-Let-us-count-the-way>

Fun fact about your city/country

There are 301 days of sunshine in Toronto! It is the only Canadian city with sports teams in the NBA, NHL & MBA. Around 25% of all Hollywood movies are actually filmed in Toronto (and Humber hosts many film crews - Handmaid's tale most recently!)
