Management information

January 2017
Update

HEFCE open access policy

Since 1 April 2016, a journal article or published conference paper will only be eligible for the next REF if it complies with the HEFCE Open Access Policy. Our core message to ensure compliance remains the same:

“Deposit your accepted manuscript into USIR when you receive the acceptance message, and we will be in touch if you need to do anything else.”

The author’s accepted manuscript is the final version submitted by the author(s) before they received formal acceptance for publication and does not include any formatting by the publisher. If you have any questions about depositing or the HEFCE open access policy please do get in touch.

New research appointment in the library

Emma Smith has been appointed to the role of Academic Support Manager (Research), the position held previously by Helen McEvoy. Before starting at Salford Emma held the position of Researcher Development Manager at the University of Warwick. Emma started with the Library on 1 February and can be contacted at E.E.Smith@salford.ac.uk or by telephone on 52445. We are currently recruiting for the positions of Scholarly Communications Librarian and Copyright Support Officer.

What do you think of the USIR Management Information report?

We are reviewing the way we present data in the USIR Management Information and would welcome your feedback. Which sections do you find most useful? Would you like to see the data presented in a different way? Please send your views and suggestions to usir@salford.ac.uk

Many thanks,
