Discussion

The Law and Flexible Working

- All employees have the legal right to request flexible working - not just parents and carers.
- This is known as 'making a statutory application'.
- Employees must have worked for the same employer for at least 26 weeks to be eligible.
- What employers must do
 - Employers must deal with requests in a 'reasonable manner'.
 - Examples of handling requests in a reasonable manner include:
 - assessing the advantages and disadvantages of the application
 - holding a meeting to discuss the request with the employee
 - offering an appeal process
